

2004 –2005 SC Healthy Schools Award Winners

Eight Component Winners

Drayton Hall Elementary School, Charleston (Charleston School District 10)
Wren elementary School, Piedmont (Anderson School District I)

Seven Component Winner

R.B. Stall High School, North Charleston (Charleston School District 4)

- Healthy and Safe Environment
- Family and Community Involvement
- Staff Wellness
- Skills-based Health Instruction
- Health Services
- Nutrition Services
- Guidance Counseling, Psychological and Social Services

Six Component Winner

Anderson County Alternative School (Anderson School District Three)

- Healthy and Safe Environment
- Health Instruction
- Physical Activity
- Health Services
- Nutrition Services
- Guidance Counseling, Psychological and Social Services

Five Component Winners

Marion Intermediate School (Marion School District I)

- Healthy and Safe Environment
- Staff Wellness
- Health Services
- Nutrition Services
- Guidance Counseling, Psychological and Social Services

Townville Elementary School (Anderson County School District 4)

- Family and Community Involvement
- Staff Wellness
- Health Instruction
- Physical Activity
- Nutrition Services

Four Component Winner

Pepperhill Elementary School (Charleston School District 4)

- Staff Wellness
- Physical Activity
- Health Services
- Nutrition Services

Three Component Winners

Oakway Middle School, Westminster (Oconee County School District)

- Health Instruction
- Physical Activity
- Nutrition Services

Two Component Winner

Mellichamp Elementary School, Orangeburg (Orangeburg School District 3)

- Staff Wellness
- Health Services

One Component Winners

Grassy Pond Elementary School, Gaffney (Cherokee County School District)

- Physical Activity

Sangaree Intermediate School, Summerville (Berkeley County School District)

- Health Services

Continuing Eight Component Winners

D. R. Hill Middle School